

Provider Appeal Process for Network Termination

Provider shall have the right to appeal any termination of this Agreement or removal of any provider identified in Exhibit "B" from the preferred provider network so long as such appeal right is provided in accordance with state law where the provider is providing services. Appeal rights, if any, will be available in all states where they are legally required. The appeal process, if any, will adhere to the applicable state's requirements.